

RENT 2021 AWARDS

ECSB Best Doctoral Proposal Award

Linh Duong (Åbo Akademi University) for the paper “Start-up pitching and gender: an ethnography study”

1000€ grant for attending USASBE.

International Small Business Journal (ISBJ)’s Best Paper Award challenging the conventional wisdom in Entrepreneurship

Gustav Hägg, Lund University, Agnieszka Kurczewska, University of Lodz and Jasna Pocek, Lund University for the paper: “A context in mutation – How the gig economy is changing the rules of the game for opportunity and necessity driven entrepreneurship”

The Prize paid by ISBJ: 500 EUR

Nominees:

Franziska Mather, München University of Applied Science & Freie Universität Berlin Janina Sundermeier, Freie Universität Berlin	It’s About Time: An Open Approach to Measuring Gender Stereotypes in Entrepreneurship.
Gustav Hägg, Lund University Agnieszka Kurczewska, University of Lodz Jasna Pocek, Lund University	A context in mutation – How the gig economy is changing the rules of the game for opportunity and necessity driven entrepreneurship
Jeldrik Pulm, TU Dortmund Bastian Kindermann, TU Dortmund Steffen Strese, TU Dortmund	Entrepreneurial Orientation and Failure in Newly Public Firms

José Maria Veciana Best Paper Award (for a young researcher)

Kasper M. Arendt (Copenhagen Business School)

for the paper "Team formation strategies among prospective entrepreneurs - evidence from a large-scale survey experiment"

Free participation in RENT or 3E Conferences within two years of the award and

Prize paid by ECSB: 250 EUR

Nominees:

Nik Tavakoli Darestani	Winners and Losers in the Crowd: An Empirical Analysis of Primary and Secondary Market Behavior of Initial Coin Offering Investors	RWTH AACHEN UNIVERSITY (GERMANY)
Kasper M. Arendt	Team formation strategies among prospective entrepreneurs - evidence from a large-scale survey experiment	COPENHAGEN BUSINESS SCHOOL (DENMARK)
Maximilian Tischer & Malte Brettel	"In it together" – The critical role of the new venture team in the light of entrepreneurial stress and burnout	RWTH AACHEN UNIVERSITY (GERMANY)

Best Paper Award in honor of Alistair Anderson

Marieshka Barton (University of Liverpool) for the paper "The Magical Language of Un-Realistic Opportunities in Social Entrepreneurship"

Prize: a fast-track opportunity for publication in Entrepreneurship & Regional Development and mentoring from the ERD editorial team

Nominees:

Place, Space and Entrepreneurship for Alternative Practices	Leonie Eising, Leuphana University
An anthropological perspective on contextualizing entrepreneurship: The case of ethnic Chinese entrepreneurs in Southeast Asia	Michiel Verver VU Amsterdam
The Magical Language of Un-Realistic Opportunities in Social Entrepreneurship	Marieshka Barton, University of Liverpool

Best Family Business Paper Award

Florian Bartels (University of Münster) for the paper “The Mitigating Impact of Family Firm Narcissism on Companies’ Carbon Emissions”

Prize paid by Family Business Association: 500 EUR

Nominees:

Out of the Goodness of my Heart: CSR Motivation in Family Firms	Andreas Schumacher
The Mitigating Impact of Family Firm Narcissism on Companies’ Carbon Emissions	Florian Bartels
Family oblige – The link between CSR, SEW and continuation in small and medium family firms	Andrea Stübner

Best Poster session award

Susanne Schleppehorst, Siegrun Brink, and Friederike Welter, Institut für Mittelstandsforschung (IfM) Bonn for the poster “Being a ‘good girl’ – forced to behave according to rules?”

Prize paid by EIASM: 200 EUR

Best Reviewer Nominees RENT 2021 (for the recognition of their work)

Siegrun Brink, Institut für Mittelstandsforschung, Bonn (Germany)

Silvia Costa, University of Groningen (Netherlands)

Pekka Stenholm, University of Turku (Finland)

Award for the most active ECSB Country-VP 2021

Pekka Stenholm (University of Turku)

Prize: 500 EUR for organising a co-branded ECSB event within two years after the award

ECSB Fellow 2021

Prof. Steffen Korsgaard, University of Southern Denmark to be announced at the AGM of ECSB on 23 November 2021